Boy Drowner. - A boy named George McAnulty, about nine years of age, was drowned yesterday in the river at the foot of turned and threw him into the water. Some persons who saw the accident ran to the spot, but their efforts were unavailing, and when body was recovered, which was in a very short time, life had become extinct. He was immediately carried to the home of his parents on Front-street, an inquest under the circum-stances being deemed unnecessary.

BURGLARY ON THIRD-STREET .- The residence of a man named Joseph Ross, located on Third-street, near Stone, was feloniously entered night before last, and robbed of a portmonnais containing $27, which the scoundrels found in the bed-room of Mr. Ross. The entrance was effected by climbing to the second story of the house by means of a porch in the rear, and thence through a window to the hall, from which they passed into the chambers. Their operations were quite noiseless, and the loss of the money was the only method by which the inmates were made aware that they had been nocturnally visited.

ACCIDENT TO AN EXPRESS DRIVER. - The driver of an express-wagon, named John Col-lins, became somewhat inebriated yesterday afternoon, and with the usual concomitants of drunkenness came also recklessness and hebe tude. While in this state he drove his horse quite rapidly, but when near the corner of Sixth and Plum-streets, a sudden joit threw him from his seat and he fell upon the bowldered pavement with such force as to break his right arm and injure his head quite severely. He was taken into a house in the neighborhood, where his wounds were dressed, after which he was removed to his home on Elm-street, near

BOARD OF CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—At the reg-ular semi-weekly session of the Board of City Improvements yesterday morning, the clerk was directed to prepare and transmit to the City Council an ordinance to pave the unpaved sidewalk on Clinton-street, from Western-row to Freeman-street.

Also, an ordinance to grade and pave with limestone, Park-alley, from Mill-street to The communication from the Trustees and Visitors of Common Schools relative to the condition of Third-street, between Butler-street and the Mismi Canal, was referred to the Commissioner of the District. The Commissioner of the Eastern District was authorised to have Main-street, from Seventh to the Miami Canal, repaired at a cost of $35. The scaled proposals offered for repairing the culvert under Culvert-street, south of Fifth-street, were opened and considered, and laid n the table until the next meeting. Board adjourned.

Polica Count.—Judge Lowe yesterday disposed of twenty-six cases, only one or two of which were worthy of note.

John Campbell, who, we stated yesterday, had been arrested upon a charge of violating the seventh commandment, at the instance of a woman named Kate Free, was discharged, no evidence having been offered which would seem to indicate guilt, although it is quite probable; the fact that it is extremely difficult to prove the commission of this crime may also have tended to the result we have named. Coal Oil, Lamps and Burners.

The card of Messrs. Gray, Hemingray & Brothers, which will be found in our columns, fully announces to the Western and Southern frade the nature and extent of the various articles of Glass-ware, &c., constantly turned out by the skillful workmen at their extensive works, on the banks of the Ohio, and which obviate any necessity, so far as quality and prices are concerned, of a resort to any other establishment in the East or elsewhere; but our purpose is now more especially, in the first place, to invite the attention of the trade, and all interested, to the quality and styles of the

which they manufacture for the use of railroads, steamboats, and for any required purpose. None of your Yankee notions, made not for use, but for sale, and which have too long flooded the South and West, only to melt, be thrown overboard, or to be strewn along the various railroad routes by agents and con-ductors, so grossly imposed upon. The Lan-terns of Gray, Hemingray & Brothers are of their own manufacture, of the self-adjusting and other most approved patents and styles, and constructed with a view to durability.

COAL OIL LAMPS. Since chemical science has overcome the only objection to the oil, by deodorising it, and thus destroying the offensive odor, this basis for ar-tificial light must throw all other fluids into disues, it being the nearest approach to gas, in point of safety, brilliancy and economy, being, after all, liquid gas. The oil being pure, the next important matter is the burner, and though scores of abortive contrivances have been palmed upon the public, G., H. & Bros. have what may be confidently styled

THE PERFECT COAL OIL BURNER, in which the wick works with entire freedom avoiding all smoke or offensive odors, may be adjusted to oil and fluid lamps, and defying all

They have always on hand a large stock of pure deodorised oil lamps for all purposes, chimneys, shades, wicks, brushes, &c. Remember No. 20 East Columbia-street.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION. CINCINNATI, November 11, 1859. Mossrs. Gray & Hemingray :

GENTS.—The Collins Burner you sent me I have fully tested, and must acknowledge that it is superior to any that I have tried; and for length and extent of flame, and the freedom of it from flickering, I have met with no burner that will be supported by the collins of the coll that will produce the same extent of flame, or such uniformity of it during combustion. With the same wick and oil it will give fully onehalf more light than the Jones or any other burner I am acquainted with.

Respectfully, Yours, &c.,

Phoenix Oil-works, Cincinnati.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY BOARD OF Equalization.—The County Board of Equali-sation, that it might better discharge its duties, as our readers are already aware, subpensed a large number of persons from the different townships to assist in making a fair average of the value of all the real estate in the county.

the value of all the real estate in the county.

Yesterday these persons were divided into committees, with instructions to report in regard to the discrepancies they might find in the assessors' returns. Some of the committees reported to the Board yesterday afternoon, but the remainder have not as yet finished their labors. The reports which have been handed in are in substance as follows:

The Committee for Harrison, Whitewater and Crosby were of the opinion that, although they found some discrepancies in the relative valuation of a few lots, they had thought it best to allow the assessors' returns to remain as they were.

The Committee for Anderson, Columbia and Spencer, reported some contrariety in the relative value of some farms, but it was not of sufficient magnitude to justify them in disturbing the returns of the assessors.

The Committee for Symmes, Sycamore and

The Committee for Symmes, Sycamore and Springfield agreed that the property in Symmes had been valued proportionately too high, and that the average of that township was below that of Springfield. Five lots in Sycamore were valued at $51, when it should have been $81; seven others valued at $55 80, should have been $74 40, and in Symmes some had been taken at $31 40, which should have been $20 26. $39 20. The Committee on Colerain, Green and Miami recommended that the average value of Colerain should be increased to $45; that a proportionate amount should be taken from Station-house and voluntarily gave himself up. the aggregate value of Green, and that Mismi should be allowed to remain as returned by the assessors.

PROBABLE HOMICIDE-THE SPIRIT OF VIO LENCE VISITS A WEDDING.—It is not often that the spirit of violence visits the house in which, according to a popular delusion, a couple are being made happy, and that, too, just at the moment they have spoken the words that are supposed to possess this magic power; but such was the case, night before last, in this city. A couple of young men named Mishael Feeney and John Lawler, who had for some time been to each other what they would call friends, met at a wedding-party, on the corner of Ludlow-street and Congress During the evening they drank quite freely of the enemy which Seneca, before Shakspeare said stole away men's brains, and afterward quarreled. In the crased condition of the parties, maddened by anger and by wine, Feeney stabbed Lawler in the left breast, the knife passing into the cavity of the chest, just below the heart. L. was taken to his home at the corner of Third and Lock-streets, immediately after the affray; but in an attempt to take the instrument from the wound, which must have been quite bungling, the blade was broken, and this renders his condition still more critical. F. was arrested, and yescerday morning committed in default of bail to the amount of $2,000, for his appearance before the same tribunal on Friday next.

A CONFIDENTIAL PARTY CAUGHT .-- A man whose name we could not learn, who was about to leave for Dubuque, was met yesterday on the wharf by an individual who said he was going to the same place, having been purchasing goods in this city which he had shipped upon the steamboat Denmark. While shipped upon the steamboat Demmark. While they were conversing upon this subject a third party approached, who pretended to be the merchant from whom the goods had been purchased, with a bill for fifty dollars, where-upon the sharper asked his newly formed acquaintance to lend him fifty dollars. The stranger luckily had but $6, and just at this moreout a couple of our police came up and moment a couple of our police came up and arrested the would-be confidence men, and committed them to the Hammond-street Station-house. Their names are William Davis and James C. Watson, and their late adven-ture will probably consign them for some months to that classic locality known as the City Prison.

SINGULAR AFFAIR.—On the 8th of November, a man named James Cairns was sent to the City Prison, being unable to pay a fine of $10 and costs, which was charged against him for some trifling misdemeanor. He had some money, which he paid, and then his wife, with the spirit of a true woman, came to his rescue with her jewelry and pledged the payment of the balance with three finger-rings, a pair of car-rings, and a breast pin. Yesterday she went to the City Prison for the purpose of redeeming her jewelry, when it was discovered that two of the rings had been stolen—a cirsumstance which she avers she will have investigated until she finds, if possible, the guilty party. SINGULAR AFFAIR .-- On the 8th of November party.

H. L. Synes & Co.—All who are preparing for a feast to-morrow, Thanksgiving Day, should read the advertisement of Stiles & Co. in another column. They will receive a large supply of ane oysters, selected expressly for the family trade. Don't forget it when laying charge of grand larceny, having stolen thirtyeight dollars in silver coin and bank-notes from an Italian on Fifth-street, named John Martin, was held to bail in the sum of $400 to answer the charge before the next Court of Common Pleas.

Overen-nouse.—The oyster importing house of Peter Cavagna, No. 31 West Third-street, is enabled to supply all demands for choice
oysters to-night and to-merrow. He is provided with some of the "double extras," which we know to be A No. 1. Try them.

AMUSEMENTS.

Woon's THEATER.—The Richings are not drawing as well as they should be at this theater, and we hope they will be much better partonized before the close of the week. Mise Caroline is aswers singer, a pretry woman and a clever actross. This creating THE UNERLAND OF THE REGISTENT and the comedy of SECOND LOVE will be presented.

NATIONAL THEATER.—The great Goothean NATIONAL THEATER.—The great Goothean spectacle, Farar and Mandunity, is still drawing excellent andiences to the National Theater. The pictures and tableaux are admirably arranged, and from the opening scene until the apothesis of "Marguerite," which closes the performances, it is a succession of beautiful representations, which is worthy a visit from every lower of the spectacular drams. It will be repeated this evening, with Mr. J. B. Roberts as "Mapphistophiles," and will be proceeded by the beautiful drams, Theatesa's Yow.

PIRE's OPERA-House .- The audience at the PIRE'S OPERA-HOUSE.—The audience at the Opera-house last night was quite a fine one, and the play passed off to its entire satisfaction. Bir. and first Conway, elibough their mannerisms are sometimes unpleasant, continus to meet with the approbation their merit deserves.

To-night they appear in Tom Taylor's beautiful comedy "Still Warens Bun Dese;" and as they have aiready appeared in the characters of "Mr. and Mrs. Midmay" in this city, and won the heartlest applause, they will doubtless draw alarge house. The farce is "MT Toung Wiraham Old Uneralla," with Mr. Davidge as "Gregory." CONCERT AT SMITH & NIXON'S HALL .- The CONCENT AT SMITH & NIZON'S HALL.—The concert last night at Smith & Nixon's Hall, for the benefit of the Catholic Institute, was quite largely attended and apparently greatly enjoyed. Haydn's beautiful quartotte was finely rendered by Hessra. Weber, Buesselbach, Bissing and Junkerman. Mrs. Bueller sans "Robert tol que !' Aime" very sweetly, while Mozart's dust from "Don Glovann!" "La ce Darum," in answer to an encore, was tastefully given by Alies Hirckhauer and Mr. Gerold. As a whole, the programme was well rendered, and the concert a success.

COMPLIMENTARY CONCERT .- This evening a complimentary concert will be given to Mr. Thomas Crawford, at Smith & Nixou's Hall. A good pro-gramme has been prepared for the occasion.

LAW REPORT.

SUPRRIOR COURT.

BILLS OF LADING NEGOTIATED .- I'm Wood Bills of Lading Negotiated.—Ira Wood vs. Hurin, Wilson, and Stephens. Hurin obtained bills of lading for the shipment by rairoad of a large quantity of flour—a portion only of which was delivered. He afterward drew bills of exchange on the coheignees in Eslitmore and Philadelphia, which were discounted at the Lafaryste Bank. Wood settled with the bank for the quantity of merchandize undelivered, and now brings suit for the advances.

A demurrer was interposed on the ground that the transaction was fraudulent in law as against public policy or opposed to the statute on that anbject.

Judge Storer held that if Wood acted in good faith, public policy was not impugned nor the statute did not apply. Demurrer oversuled and leave to answer.

Subrogation of a claim for insurance —Cincinnati Insurance Co. vs. J. M. Newcombe. The plantifi paid defendant $1,000 upon an average claim. De-fendant subsequently recovered for the same item against the steambeat which caused the injury sued axainst the steamboat which caused the injury such for.

It was held by Judge Storer that after plaintiff paid the claim, they were placed in the position of Newcombe having alone the right to demand the amount from the steamboat. Demurrer overruled.

Halpin vs. Gilbert.—Sult for services as surveyor, Judgment for plaintiff.

C. E. Smith vs. The New York Indemnity Insurance Co—Judge Hoadly said the testimony showed that the risk was a bad one for the Company to take. The plaintiff's premises had been robbed—he had prepared assarch warrant, and had evidently incurred the hostility of a gang of deeperadoes. He admits that the officers advised him to get insured, because "they were rather a hard-looking set of follows." There could be no question that Smith acted in good faith. There is no proof that he suppressed the fact. He made his application to the Company without giving him any instructions. But it was equally plain the Company would not have taken the risk had they known the facts. After referring to various authorifies, the Court proceded to remark that in this case the express terms of the policy provide that any material courcealment shall render it void. The question as to the keeping of gun-powder was not considered.

Judgment for defendant.

COMMON PLEAS.

SUIT UNDER THE BASTARDY ACT.—Anna Weber vs. Frank Miller.—Before Judge Collins. The action was to prove the paternity of an illegitimate child. Under the recent decision of the Supreme Court, the defendant was allowed to testify. He swore he had no illicit intercourse with plaintiff. A great many witnesses were subpensed.

the 19th of April, 1858, a homicide was committed on the corner of Third-street and Elm, in this city, under the following circumstances:

A man named John Leonard, who at that time was drayman for Thomas Emery & Co., on Vine-street, met Michael Burke, who drove on vine-street, met anonaet burke, who grove a lime-cart at the locality we have named, and their vehicles came in contact, which, as is usual in such cases, caused some hard feelings and some harder words. During the quarrel that ensued L. siezed a dray-pin and struck B. on the head with such force that he died within a little while.

To escape punishment Leonard left the city and went to Australia, where he has remained ever since. A few days ago, however, he re-He was admitted to bail by Judge Lowe, the charge against him being murder in the second degree, but what the amount was we could not learn. The case will be finally disposed of at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

"TRIPLE SELECTS."--The old established

depot at No. 11 West Fifth-street, to which our citizens have been accustomed to look to for the best of cysters at all times, has pre-pared a treat for its many patrons at home and abroad, by having packed, at their Baltimore house, cysters that will bring the twinkle to the epicure's eye when spread before him. No family will, we are assured, think of sitting down to their Thanksgiving dinner without a dish of Robert Orr's "triple select" systers. BREEFIT OF THE WIDOWS' HOME .- The Cincinnati Street Railroad Company notify the public that the gross receipts on their line of

Home, by order of the Board. This official notice will cause many to ride who would otherwise walk, and all who have tickets to keep them in their pockets. Overens.—Those fond of fine oysters—and who is not?—should call at Todd's Oyster Depot, No. 253 Walnut-street, showe Sixth. He receives daily by express the very best road on Thursday-Thanksgiving Day-will be appropriated to the benefit of the Widows' bivaires sent to this market, and his patrons can rely upon them and him always. JOURNALISTIC .- Mr. R. Delavan Mussey, for many months connected with the local de-partment of the Daily Gazette, has become as-sociated with the editorial staff of the at journal. His new position we trust will prove more agreeable because less arduous than the one agreeable because he has resigned.

COVINGTON NEWS.

The Water-works.—Our readers are no doubt well aware that the City Council has authorized the construction of Water-works in this city, and directed the Committee on Internal Improvements to advertise for proposals for their construction, subject to such terms and conditions as were imposed in the ordinance, to which we have referred. As yet no advertisement for proposals has been published. We are not aware of the cause of the delay, but conjecture that some difficulty about the location of the reservoir is at the foundation. It has been proposed to publish the advertisement in the New York papers, that eastern companies may have an opportunity to compete with our home enterprise. Competition is the life of business, and we are glad that our City Council intends to invite it is this instance. THE WATER-WORKS .- Our readers are no

THE NEW WHARF COMPLETED.—Mr. Over-camp last night notified the Chairman of the Com-mittee on Internal Improvements, and the City En-gineer, that the new wharf near the Cincinnati and Ovington bridge-pier, between Scott and Greenup-sirests, had been completed according to contract. The work will be examined to day, and, if approved, will be received by the City Council.

Police Court.—Jenny McIntyre, James Fitspainer and Charles Bliot were sentenced to twenty days each in the city Jall, for vagrancy, and Barry Husselbroke was fixed $3.70, for disorderly conduct, by Mayor Foley, yesterday.

SCOTT-STREET.—There is now some prospect that the lower end of this street will be made passable in the course of a few weeks. NEWPORT NEWS.

SENDAY SCHOOL CHLEBRATION.—A Sunday School celebration takes place at Lexington to-day and it is intended that a representation from all parts of the State will be present. Rev. Mr. Coningham, of the M. E. Church, and others from the city, have gone thither to assist in the ceremonies of the day.

city, have gone thither to assist in the ceremonies of the day.

The ball given by the Concordia Club, of our city, on Monday evening, was a very pleasant affair, the attendance not withsta; ding the inclemency of the weather, being large. Keatucky's dark-eyed daughters seemed lovely and charming, and their sparkling wit flowed freely as ever.

THE NEW JAIL.—The roof over the new jall is now nearly finished, and it is the intention to have it completed, ready to receive inmates, by the first of January next.

Monetary and Commercial.

The principal feature in Third-street yester day was the general decline in the Eastern Exchange to M premium, and in the buying figure to M prem. At the decline the market was duft, and some dealers did not desire to buy, particularly on Boston and Baltimore. The increased offerings of Eastern Bills by Pork-operators has been the cause of the reduced price in Exchange.

Currency was in active demand and the supply limited, though some of the Bankers say the receipts have been better this week than they were for the same time last week. The market continues stripger Coin is very heavy. The Brokers refusing to pay Addison premium.

The Brokers further advanced the price of Missouri bank notes yesterday, charging I discount. Iowa. Illinois and Wisconsin were still purchased at 115 dis.

The rates of Exchange and Coin are at present as

There was increased activity in the Foreign Trade at the port of New York, and in the movement of Cotton from the Southarn ports the past week. The entries of general merchandise show the heaviest increase, including several valuable East india cargoes. Including the Dry Gooes table in our last issue, the total imports of the week are 3,606.51. against $1,998,993 the same week fast season. Thus let in November, 1835, the previous two weeks failing below has reason. The export of ordinary domestic produce and miscellaneous goods is $1,504,820.0 against $1,356,135 same week Instyent.

Monday's Tribune says of Money matters in New Monday's Tribune says of Money matters in New

Tork:

The Money market is without important change, but on account of the disposition on the part of some of the banks to check the expansive movements of the past faw weeks, the rates on Paper were about the past faw weeks, the rates on Paper were about the past faw weeks, the rates on Paper were about the past faw weeks, the rates on Paper were about the past faw weeks, the rates of paper were about the past faw weeks, the rates of paper were about the past faw weeks, according to maintity. Prime short bills are still in moderate supply, and are passed without difficulty. Long paper goes less freely. On demand rates are unchanged at 565 per cent. with rather more doing than last week at the higher rate.

Specio has been coming in during the week to considerable extent from Philadelphia, Boston and the West, but the Sub-treasury has gained some $500,000 from the streat, which, with the shipment of $500,000 from the streat, which, with the shipment of $500,000 on Satortay week, will probably bring the specie reserve in the bank averages down to $19,500,000, or Iteramry notes and deposits of gold for New Orleans transfer drafts.

Monday's Philadelphia Press observes:

Monday's Philadelphia Press observes: Monday's Philadelphia Press observes:

The shipment of specia to New York hava, for some days, been large, and the banks, always nervous, are a little frightened. They are curtailing their loans rather rapidly, not by withdrawing loans to their mercantile customers and large depositors, but by drawing right and loft upon the other depositories of their money, who do not appreciate the process of paying up so highly as the receiving creditors. But while the banks are thus, to some extent, noor, the outside capitalists are full of funds, and stand ready to furnish just as much money as they can find a market for in undoubted securities, at little more than bank rates. market for in undoubted securities, at little more than bank rates.

The exports of Norfolk, Va., for the year reached $3.444.264, of which $440.809 was the result of the "trucking" business. The annual product of the city manufactories was $700.200. Among other items of export were 2,301,719 bushels of opsiers.

Last week's $1. Louis Bank statement shows an increase of $47,021 in Exchanges maturing, and a decrease of $47,021 in circulation, and $13,550 in specie.

decrease of $47,211 in circuising, and $13,500 in specie.

The Missouri Democrat says that the circulation of the city Banks there is gutting down to a mere nominal sum. Instead of keeping out three dollars of paper for every dollar of coin in their vaults, they have only a little over fifty cents on the dollar out in the aggregate. The largest Bank, the State, has only about an eighth of a dollar in paper for each dollar of coin in its vaults, while some of the others have about dollar for dollar.
